

Emirati Women's Day

Speakers: Samah Alobeidli and Nujoom Al Ghanem

[Samah Alobeidli] I'm Samah Alobeidli. I'm a Senior Vice President in HSBC Global Banking. I manage institutional clients, and I have a deep passion for arts.

[Nujoom Al Ghanem] I am Nujoom Al Ghanem, an Emirati artist. My academic background is in cinema. In addition to cinema, I studied fine arts and theatre.

[Samah Alobeidli] The Emirati culture is very rich, and it's rooted in values such as family, respect, perseverance, and holding on to your identity.

And working for a global organization like HSBC, you can take these values to your workplace and also, you know, take it one day abroad.

And we've seen many Emirati women, whether it's the women of the past or the present, who've paved the path, you know, for us today and for the women of the future.

[Nujoom Al Ghanem] To represent my country in artistic or cultural forums, is something I always take great pride in.

One of my films was accepted at the annual Yamagata Festival in Japan. It was a remarkable milestone for me.

Happy Emirati's Women Day to every Emirati woman!

[Samah Alobeidli] Happy Emirati Women's Day!
